The Axis Centre comprises three existing business units and 10 new office buildings. It is situated on the edge of Leatherhead, approximately 1 mile north-west of the town centre, close to the junction of Cleeve Road and the A245 Cobham to Leatherhead road. The M25 (Junc. 9) is within 1 mile, providing access to the national motorway network. Leatherhead rail station is within walking distance, with frequent services to central London.

DESCRIPTION

Units 1-10 comprise a new courtyard development of self-contained office buildings constructed in 2 terraces within a landscaped setting. The building specification is consistent with modern office occupier requirements and each unit benefits from allocated car parking.
